BEACON 72

GILROY

Becky Smith

Bucky,
You must admit we make a good team even if we never can agree.
I don't know how I would have gotten through physical science without you to talk to (about Butch and Steve) except to see you this summer.
Have fun next year and afterwards too!
Love,
Barb.

Bucky, Remember all our fun at the wrestling meets! And all the mistakes I made!! You really a sweet person to talk to. Good luck in the future. Sec. God blesses you. Best wishes Nan '72"

May all your days be happy ones,
George Williams

BECKY,
I WISH YOU WOULD OF TOLD ME
SOONER THAT YOU DIDNT LIKE VIV.
I WOULD HAVE BROKE UP SOONER. SHE'S A TERRIBLE BOWLER ANYWAY. GOOD LUCK WITH BUTCH (THAT MESS-HEAD).

SEE YA ROUND,
Jeff R. R. R.

VACANCY

Here is the now retired Beacon Staff, waiting quite patiently for the mailman to deliver our Social Security Pensions. Before going inside, we'd like thank Dave Bell from Novdquist Studios, our most cooperative family, all the kids that helped, and the student body of Bottendorf who helped, by being themselves, to make this such an interesting Beacon for us to produce. So, as we await our trip to the Great Yearbook in the Sky, may we be assured that you here enjoyed our attempt to picture this year as we saw it; a most exciting one for BH.

Becky,

Well, I really don't know where to begin. I guess everything started around somecoming when everyone came over to my house after the game. Then we started going bowling and playing cards together. It was the beginning of a long friendship - I hope! - I'm sure you'll never forget "Molley & Dudley". I'll always make John and I laugh. Also I'm sure you won't forget all of the times John & Butch got mad while we were bowling - hopefully eventually they will stop getting mad and realize that it's just a game. Then there was all the trouble of sweethearts - It all ended up alright though. I'm sure that you'll never forget all of the great times we've had. I couldn't begin to write them all down because I'd never get finished. You take care at college next year and don't forget that just because I live in LeClaire I still will be in town alot. By the way - would you like some Sappy Scramble Eggs or Cold Bacon? Hahh. Wasn't that a riot, I hope that we go out to eat for Prom because I can't stand to ~~eat~~ <sup>make</sup> mistakes eat those silly eggs again.

Will you be good next year and keep in touch, we'd better get a bowling team for winter so I don't just sit at home and do nothing.

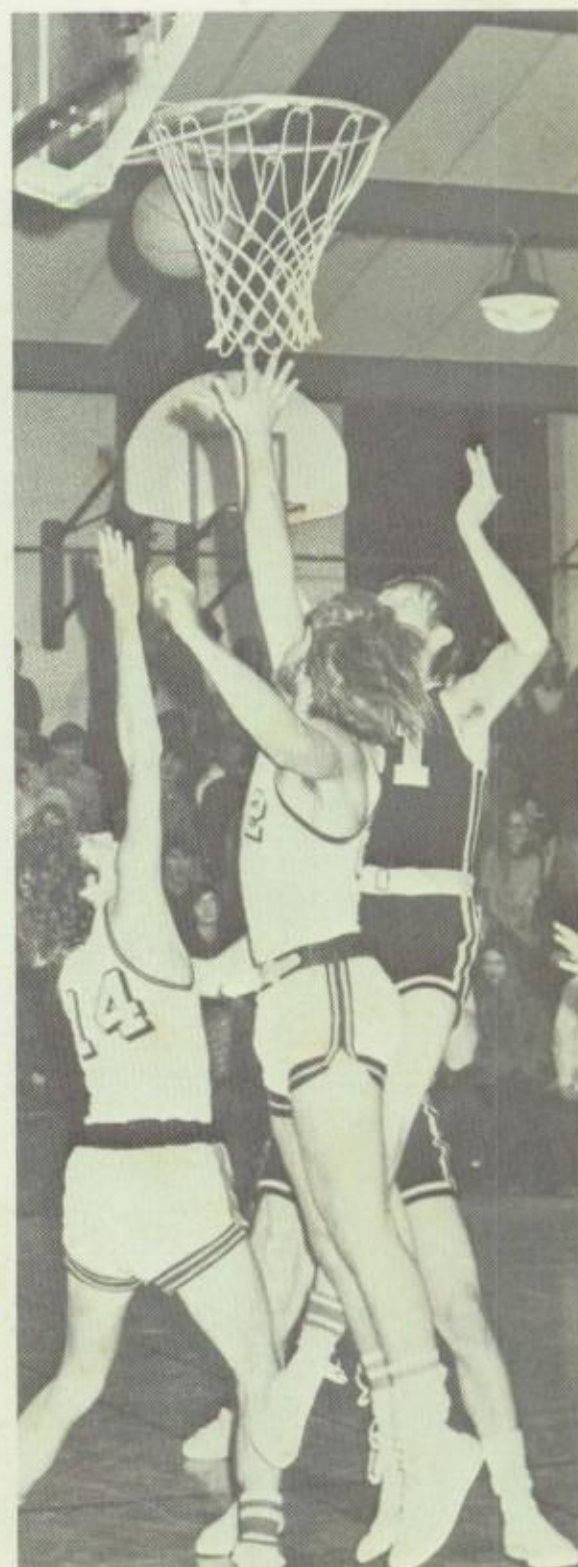

Good Luck & Take Care

Love
Jim
